

May 24, 2021

Approved Electric Mountain Bike Routes

1. Koala Access – Bear Top – Lower Ski Bowl
 - Description: Take paved roads up to Bear Lake; climb Flynn Rd. to Koala Access Rd. (18EV287) leading to top of the ski area parking lot. Continue up and past resort maintenance station to top of the ski resort (aka Bear Top). Return to top of the parking lot and continue down to ski resort lodge on parking lot road. From ski lodge, there are several service roads connecting the lower chairlifts. Return to top of the parking lot and down Koala Access Road and Bear Valley.
 - Skill: Intermediate skill level
 - Length: ~10 miles

2. Corral Gulch – Bear Trap Basin
 - Description: Take Hwy. 4 west along frontage road to Corral Gulch trailhead (17EV485). Continue up to the top of the ridge with difficult terrain towards the top (advanced skill). From the top continue west along the ridge before dropping down to Bear Trap Basin. Retrace path back to Bear Valley.
 - Skill: Advanced (mostly intermediate except the top of Corral Gulch)
 - Length: ~13 miles

3. Camp Wolfeboro (Stanislaus River)
 - Description: Descend Hwy. 4 west for 5 miles to top of Camp Wolfeboro Road (just past Skyline Drive). A 2.5-mile descent will bring you to the North Fork of the Stanislaus River. Great swimming holes can be found along the river. Retrace route to Bear Valley.
 - Skill: Intermediate
 - Length: ~15 miles

4. Mt. Reba
 - Description: Ascend Hwy. 4 to Hwy. 207 (~2 miles). Go short distance up Hwy 207 to the Round Valley Trailhead parking lot on the right. Head up jeep road (7N93) with rough terrain up to the ridge of Poison Canyon. From the ridge, the jeep road is better to the top of Mt. Reba (~2.5 miles). Retrace path to Bear Valley.
 - Skill: Advanced
 - Length: ~9 miles

5. Ballfield & Village Par Course
 - Description: From BV Adventure Co. take the paved road to Perry Walther Building at the southeast corner of the village. Access trail from the south end of the parking lot. After crossing Hwy. 4 continue past tennis courts and ball field on the right. Dirt road circles back to tennis courts. Retrace path to the village and to the northside of the Bear Valley Lodge and Skyhigh Pizza. Follow the trail on east side of creek and continue up to Bear Lake along old Par Course trail. Steep climb right before lake. Retrace path to the village.
 - Skill: Beginner.
 - Length: 5 miles

Approved Electric Mountain Bike Route Map

1. Koala Access-Bear Top-Lower Ski Bowl
2. Corral Gulch-Bear Trap Basin
3. Camp Wolfboro
4. Mt. Reba
5. Ball Field (a) & Village Par Course (b)